Local Designer a Winner in National Competition Recognizes Excellence in Kitchen and Bath Design

Hackettstown, N.J. (June, 2009) – The National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA) is pleased to announce that Cameron M. Snyder, CKD of Roomscapes Luxury Design Center has been named a winner in the 2009 NKBA Design Competition.

Now in its 37th year and open only to NKBA members, the National NKBA Design Competition recognizes the talent of designers to plan safe, functional, and personalized spaces that incorporate imaginative design statements and aesthetically pleasing solutions. A panel of certified designers judged each project based on visual appeal, creativity, elements and principles of design, presentation, and safety and ergonomics. For 2009, the NKBA received a record number of entries—over 679 projects from across the United States and Canada. Winners were announced at the 2009 NKBA Design Competition Awards Ceremony live on the show floor of the Kitchen/Bath Industry Show and Conference (K/BIS) held in Atlanta in May.

Well known Boston-based designer, Cameron M. Snyder was awarded FIRST PLACE in the LARGE KITCHEN category for a project in a South Shore oceanfront residence especially designed for a chef trained at the Cordon Blue Culinary Institute in France. Mr. Snyder specializes in residential design-build since 1977, and offers unique space planning and remodeling solutions for every room of the house. His firm, the Roomscapes Luxury Design Center, - Home of Kitchen Concepts -, has recently opened a new 10,000 Sq. Ft. showroom, the first of its kind in the Boston area. This very unique Design Center is sure to inspire you with innovative ideas and unusual materials, featuring distinguished cabinetry, selective home furnishings, high-end appliances, unique countertops, as well as exclusive tile and flooring materials. Roomscapes is also a resource destination for trade allied professionals, a sought-after venue for networking events, educational opportunities and cooking demonstrations by well-known chefs.
